

Being an Interviewer

- Most important job I have ever worked
- Get to make a difference in people's lives
- Helping professionals change the way services are provided and people's quality of life

Importance of interviewers

- Important we are people with disabilities – have better understanding
- Have similar experiences
- Changes that are made effect our lives too
- Care about survey and results
- Changing lives

Interview Participation

- Once interviewee understand it is: confidential and not a test, they are comfortable and honest
- We explain why they are there and they are happy to participate
- People are comfortable telling us when they do not want to answer a question

- People understand the questions – wording is good
- Faces give a guide for people to answer
- Teamwork of interviewers is important
